MICHAEL W. DOBBINS

CLERK, U.S. DISTRICT COURT.

Honorable Judge Milton I. Shadur,

My name is Marius C. Powell, I have a case before your court. It is case number 08 C 1270. I am writing to you because a court order that you sent to me and the defendants counsel was not adhered to. You sent said court order for a status hearing on June 9th, 2008, via a conference call at 8:45 a.m. This call was to be set up by defendants counsel. I was never contacted by defendants counsel. The legal department here at the Cook County Jail says they have no knowledge of said court order. The Social Worker, a Ms. Caldwell said this type of call is usually routed through her office. She says that she was never notified about the call. I wanted to let you know about this as soon as possible, but it is sometimes hard to get to the law library because of the system that is used to delegate these law library requests. I did mail a letter a couple of weeks ago, but I am not sure if you even got it. You see, I've recieved my legal mail already opened, so I'm not so sure about how well they follow procedure at this jail. I am hoping that this letter will help to disperse the apparent confusion concerning your court order concerning my very important case. I look forward to your response.

Sincerely,

Marius C. Powell
